@Aaron can you get LT Brown hooked up 30 branded boxes, 1 roll of branded tape, and lithium ion stickers?

@Morgan – can you connect and line up 15-25 doorbells and connect with their PIO if LT advises? Morgan here is a quick link on the operation they are running. They have plenty of residences calling in to volunteer their porches.

Thanks in advance, I will get to work on the data analysis for the area.

Excellent! Lt. Brown, what would be the best shipping address? Let me know and I'll get 20 Ring Video Doorbell devices sent over asap.

And if you could connect me with your PIO or equivalent for these operations so we can coordinate PR components that would be great!

Best,

Morgan

Excellent! Lt. Brown, what would be the best shipping address? Let me know and I'll get 20 Ring Video Doorbell devices sent over asap.

And if you could connect me with your PIO or equivalent for these operations so we can coordinate PR components that would be great!

Best,
